NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ITEMS LOST OR DAMAGED DESCRIPTIONS

Landscape: Painting/photograph that depicts scenery such as mountains, valleys, trees, rivers, forests, or a natural outdoors scene or vista that is the primary subject. There is invariably some sky in the scene.

Portrait: Work or art that represents a specific person or a group of people. Portraits usually show what a person looks like as well as revealing something about the subject's personality.

Floral: Of or relating to flowers (plants).

Seascape: A picture of a scene at sea or a scene predominantly including a portion of the sea.

Marine: Of or relating to the sea, depicting the sea, seashore or ships.

Documentary: Any artwork the purpose of which is to present facts objectively, without inserting fictional matter, recording and or commenting on content of image. Documentary photographs can be recorded images of public events.

Structure: This category could also be called architectural in that the photographs should be of buildings of any kind. The photographs are somewhat like a portrait; the image should convey a special observation about the building in relation to its environment or focus on an isolated part of that building or group of buildings.

Abstract: Any art that does not represent observable aspects of nature or transforms visible forms into a pattern resembling something other than the original model.

Animal/Wildlife: This category is for images that study animals, either domestic or wild, in their environment and attempt to show the viewer their special qualities and or relationships they may have with people or other animals.

Still Life: A type of painting or photograph that has as its subject inanimate objects such as food, dishes, fruits, or flowers.

ALL EXHIBITS MUST REMAIN IN PLACE UNTIL 7:00pm
SUNDAY OCTOBER 1, 2023
